

(a) FISHERY: a star

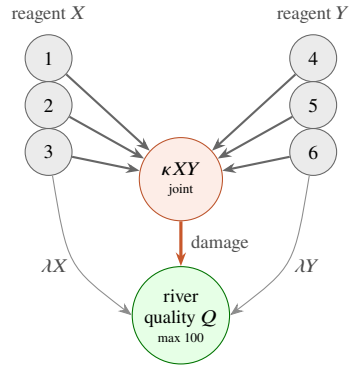

every agent draws on the same stock: one agent's catch lowers what all agents can take next round

(b) FOREST: a ring

each agent cuts its own plot; over-cutting damages the two neighbouring plots (dashed)

(c) RIVER: a mixing junction harm comes mainly from the two reagents together: no single agent's discharge looks harmful on its own